

SHARI L. COLLIAS

Shari Collias is a trial attorney with the Office of the U. S. Trustee. She earned her doctor of juris prudence from West Virginia University College of law in 1988. Prior to joining the Office of the U. S. Trustee in June of 2020, she was engaged in private practice in Charleston, West Virginia, with an emphasis on bankruptcy law. Ms. Collias' private practice consisted predominately of debtor work in Chapter 7 cases and Chapter 13 cases. However, she also represented creditors in Chapter 7 cases, Chapter 13 cases and Chapter 11 cases on a routine basis. Other areas of practice in which Ms. Collias has experience include real property law, family law, wills and estates, commercial law, Social Security, adoption and personal injury. Ms. Collias is a member of the West Virginia Bar and is admitted to practice in the U. S. District Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia and the U. S. Bankruptcy Court for the Northern and Southern Districts of West Virginia.