

L. Kevin Levine is the founding member of L. Kevin Levine, PLLC, a boutique entertainment, copyright, trademark, and business law firm in Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. Levine represents a diverse cross-section of creative entrepreneurs and business owners, including music producers, songwriters, recording artists, independent record labels and music publishers, literary authors, visual artists, and film producers. Mr. Levine has counseled trademark clients in varied industries, including entertainment, hospitality, healthcare, and firearms. Mr. Levine is also an adjunct instructor in the Marshall University Lewis College of Business and the College of Arts & Media, where he has taught numerous courses on legal environment, entrepreneurship, marketing, and music business and law.

Mr. Levine earned his B.B.A. degree, magna cum laude, in marketing, as well as his M.B.A. degree from Marshall University. Before law school, Mr. Levine spent several years as a member of the West Virginia, Kentucky, and Ohio business communities. He then attended the West Virginia University College of Law, from which he earned his J.D. degree. Mr. Levine also holds a specialist certificate in music business from the Berklee College of Music extension school. He is licensed to practice law in Tennessee and West Virginia, and is admitted in Tennessee and West Virginia state courts, and in the United States District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee and the Southern and Northern districts of West Virginia.